Greater Cleveland's PRSA Selects Ed Stevens, APR for Davis Young Award

Cleveland, Ohio – (March 16, 2015) Ed Stevens, APR +M, Chairman and CEO at Stevens Strategic Communications, Inc. has been named the 2015 recipient of the Davis Young Award for his service to young professionals. According to PRSA, Stevens taught and created PR courses, scholarship programs, internship opportunities for both local and international students and has had on-going involvement with local and Erie universities.

The Davis Young award recognizes a member of the chapter who excels in mentoring students and young professionals through hands-on instruction and support. Stevens joins an elite group of communication professionals from the Greater Cleveland area in receiving the Davis Young Award.

“It is important to support our new professionals as they hone their public relations skills,” said Stevens. “I am honored to receive this significant honor bestowed by the Cleveland PR community.”

Stevens is currently serving as President, PRSA NWP Chapter, president-elect of the Public Relations Global Network and member of the PRSA Health Academy Executive committee.
