Stevens Strategic Communications Hires Meredith Traxler as Office Manager

Westlake, Ohio—Stevens Strategic Communications (SSC), a full-service integrated marketing, corporate and crisis communications firm, announces that Meredith Traxler has been hired as its new office manager, according to Ed Stevens, APR +M, CEO, Stevens Strategic Communications.

“We are fortunate to have added Meredith on our team.” says Stevens. “She is a unique blend of accounting and copy content that is difficult to find in today’s world. She has quickly adapted to the day-to-day intricacies of our PR firm.”

Traxler will earn a Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance from Cleveland State University in the fall. Meredith is an active member of the CSU Chapter of the Financial Management Association and was an editor for the Cleveland State University newspaper, The Cauldron. Currently, she is providing administrative support to The Public Relations Global Network and PRSA NWP Chapter.
