Stevens Strategic Communications Earns Two Best Practice Awards In Public Relations Global Network Competition

PRGN gives 39 international awards of excellence to 18 agency winners; Cros (Russia) tops awards ceremony with eight wins

Dubai, United Arab Emirates – November 23, 2015 – The Public Relations Global Network (PRGN) recently announced the winners of its annual international Best Practice Awards competition and Stevens Strategic Communications, Inc. won two awards, according to Ed Stevens, APR+M, president of PRGN and owner of Stevens Strategic Communications, the PRGN affiliate based in Cleveland, Ohio.

“This is a strong and competitive awards competition showcasing communications work samples from around the globe,” said Stevens, “These awards demonstrate the outstanding work that our 46 agencies conduct throughout the world. We were proud to be one of the winning agencies.”

The top winner was Cros (Russia) with 8 awards. Stevens Strategic Communications won awards for its work for Eriez and Pepple & Waggoner in the categories of internal communications and crisis communications respectfully.

The PRGN partners meet twice a year in cities around the world. At the awards meeting, which just concluded in Dubai, UAE, Stevens led an international conference designed to grow the network, help clients and exchange knowledge of best practices Healthcare and technology/energy will be two practice areas PRGN will emphasize in 2016.
