Stevens Strategic Communications Earns Three Gold Awards in 2016 Public Relations Global Network's Sixth Annual Best Practices Awards Competition
Honors firm's work introducing Domino's DXP Delivery Vehicle

Cleveland, Ohio—(Nov. 21, 2016) The Public Relations Global Network (PRGN) announced the winners of its sixth annual Best Practices Awards in Lisbon at its sixth annual awards ceremony and dinner on Nov. 4, according to Ed Stevens, APR, PRGN immediate past-president and CEO with Stevens Strategic Communications in Cleveland. All three awards were received for Stevens Strategic Communication's work for the introduction of the Domino' DXP delivery vehicle.

"The PRGN Best Practices Awards competition honors the best of the best internationally and helps to build the network's knowledge center that can be accessed by member firms and their clients," said Stevens. The judges' criteria took into account strategy, creativity, execution and results.

"Stevens Strategic was excited to receive three gold awards which was the most awarded to any agency for our work to introduce the Domino's DXP single purpose delivery vehicle," Stevens continued. "It was especially meaningful because we were able to involve other PRGN members including Bianchi PR (Detroit), The Fearey Group (Seattle), The Castle Group (Boston) and Lewis Public Relations (Dallas). We were able to generate over 1.2 billion impressions."

In this competition there were 120 entries in 17 categories. There were a total of 51 awards distributed. Stevens Strategic Communications won for the B2B, consumer product-service and agency collaboration categories. PRGN posts the winning entries on its website www.prgn.com.
