Stevens Strategic Communications Wins Top International and Regional Awards

Cleveland, OH—(January 9, 2018) Stevens Strategic Communications (SSC) received six international and regional awards for its public relations work for four clients, according to Edward Stevens, APR, SSC Chairman & CEO.

“We were pleased to be recognized in these award competitions,” said Stevens. “We are especially proud of our work for the Community Foundation of Lorain County in support of police officer recruiting, Eriez media relations and Soundwich marketing communications.”

The Join The Force Now Campaign for the Elyria and Lorain Police departments won the community relations awards from the PRSA East Central District and Public Relations Global Network at its conference in Kyoto, Japan. It is an integrated program that uses social media, public relations, a website and events to recruit new police officers to reflect the diversity and demographics of Lorain County.”

The Diamond Awards are open to members of the 17 chapters of PRSA East Central District within Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

The Northwestern Pennsylvania Chapter of PRSA Niagara Award Program is open to public relations professionals from Erie, Crawford and Warren counties and neighboring states to share best practices. SSC won two awards for Eriez and one each for Soundwich and Hopewell. The Niagaras are awarded annually to public relations practitioners who have successfully addressed a contemporary issue with exemplary professional skill, creativity and resourcefulness.

“We thank our clients for providing us the opportunity and climate to do great work,” Stevens concluded.
